XRBIA VANGANI (BADLAPUR) is 48.86 acres township located on the eastern edge of the Mumbai Metropolitan Region, less than 15 kms from Badlapur MIDC and it adjoins the suburban railway station of Vangani. Designed as a sustainable community, the project boasts of school, shopping center, children's play areas and clubhouse that will give the overall development a real country feel.

WHERE IS VANGANI, BADLAPUR?

Vangani is a suburban railway station of Mumbai. All suburban trains on the Thane-Khopoli line stop here. Vangani sits on the periphery of the 12 Lane Multi-Modal Ring Road that is planned to decongest the vehicular and cargo traffic of Mumbai city. Fueled by a substantial infrastructural growth, Vangani (Badlapur) is expected to be a leading residential destination across the Mumbai Metropolitan Region (MMR).

KEY DISTANCES

Vangani Railway Station	5.2 km
Badlapur MIDC Road	15.1 km
Vangani to Kalyan	32.6 km

MUMBAI METRO REGION: AN UNRIVALLED GROWTH LOCATION

The growth centres of Kalyan, Vasai-Virar, Bhiwandi-Parvel and Alibaug-Pen will see a great potential to develop due to the Virar-Alibaug Multimodal Corridor (VAMC) giving these regions a much needed developmental boost. While the growth centres & the VAMC complement each other, it is the VAMC that will be transformed into India's strategic trade and commerce hub. The VAMC is also in close proximity to JNPT and the proposed Navi-Mumbai International Airport. In the next 20 years, the MMR will be the largest metropolis in the world with a GDP of $1 trillion (i.e. 66,00,000 crores which is equivalent to the 35th largest nation in the world). Population of MMR will be: 44 million (largest metro globally). This combined with a 23 million work force in an urban area of 1,750 sq. km., will impact the housing demand by 14.8 million.*
